

20 Questions

In this activity, you will try to guess what jobs the role models do by asking them up to 20 questions.

To really make you guess hard, you can only ask questions that can be answered with “yes” or “no”, “sometimes” or “maybe”.

Try to think of questions that will help you guess their job.

If you are stuck for ideas on what to ask, take a look below.

Once the activity begins, use the table on the other side to keep track of the questions and answers.

Example questions

Do you work with animals?

Do you work in construction?

Do you need to write much for your job?

Are you a tradesperson?

Do you get to control big machines at work?

Is there anything you work on that we might have in this school?

Do you work in schools?

Do you have a boss?

Do you make things with your hands?

Are you the boss of other people?

Do you work with children?

Do you work with a mix of men and women?

Do you work in the same place every day?

Do you work in transport?

Are art and design a part of your job?

Do you have to work weekends?

Do you wear the same kind of clothes you're wearing now when you work?

Do you work on things that people get to touch and use afterwards?

Does your family like the work you do?

Do you program computers for part of your work?

Have you done an apprenticeship?

Did you need to go to university for your job?

20 Questions

Use the table below to make a note of which questions have been asked. You can put "Y" for "yes", "N" for "no", "S" for "sometimes" and "M" for "maybe" below each role model's number.

Questions	Answers (Y, N, S, M)
	Role model number
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20								