

Kia ora

Congratulations on signing up to host an online Inspiring the Future event

Inspiring the Future is a powerful experience that gives young people a strong sense of the possibilities.

At an Inspiring the Future event, young people hear from role models in the community.

They'll learn about different jobs and why people love doing them, as well as how those people got started in their careers.

Everything you need to run an online Inspiring the Future event is enclosed

Your resource pack includes:

- Step-by-step guide for teachers
- Event run sheet
- Student group forms
- Student worksheet
- Device number cards
- Questions for role models
- Pre and post-event activities
- Letter to whānau/caregivers explaining the programme
- USB containing an editable run sheet template and printable versions of the resources.

All resources above can also be downloaded from the Inspiring the Future website.

Log in to your account and you can find them in the Resources section of the My Events page.

Next steps

- Read the step-by-step guide, which outlines how to prepare for your online Inspiring the Future event and what to do on the day.

If you have any questions about Inspiring the Future, please email us at inspiringthefuture@tec.govt.nz or phone 0800 601 301.

Ngā mihi

Inspiring the Future team